A New Kind of Awakening

Your path to awakening begins with a growing awareness of your body's sophisticated, heightened intelligence, and a deep trust in this intelligence to be your compass through life. By fully trusting your own ability to navigate life, you'll become more accepting of yourself, and able to genuinely love yourself – and others. This, in Human Design, is the point of personal transformation – seeing through the illusion, and moving through life awake and aware.

To guide you on your journey here's your Free Personalized Human Design Overview. If this information resonates with you there is SO much more that your Human Design can reveal about YOU. Even so, there is nothing as rich and powerful as this basic information.

Want to know more? You can get even more detail in a Full Personalized Human Design Report, available on the IHDS website at <https://ihdschool.com/chart-reports>. This detailed 50-page report covers in more depth your Type, Strategy, Authority, Profile and Cross, Planets, Channels, Gates and Lines.

To fully appreciate your unique Human Design, and the practical tools it provides, consider having a Foundation Reading. A trained analyst can synthesize your design and focus in on key areas. Analysts can cover aspects that aren't possible to put into an automated report, and bring it all together in an artful and holistic way. It can be a transformational experience. To find a Certified IHDS Professional near you, view our listing of International Professionals.

Ready to Dive Deeper? Once you've had a Foundation Reading and have taken time to explore and experience your Strategy and Authority there are readings that will reveal layer upon layer of your Design. This includes advanced readings going further into the detail of planets, gates and lines, understanding your variables, career profile, family and partnership dynamics, the different life cycles covering major life transitions, how we're designed when we sleep, and much more. This body of knowledge is multilayered and profound.

You will also find additional information in The Definitive Book of Human Design, The Science of Differentiation: ihdschool.com/products/definitive-book

This Free Short Report will give you a summary of the most important information for you:

- Type and Strategy - Your mode of operating in the world.
- Your Personal Authority - How best to make decisions.
- Defined and Undefined Centers - What you can rely upon.
- Profile - The costume you wear in life.
- Resources and Next steps.

Welcome to the journey!

Your Type and Strategy

How You Operate Most Effectively

Type embodies the very essence of The Human Design System. It's the basis for the most practical, empowering and transformative information – your Strategy and Authority. Type is about your body, your genetics and your aura. It's how you harmonize with the world around you and align with your true nature.

Your Type is a Generator

Your Strategy is to Wait to Respond

Your gift is the ability to perfect or master a task, project or skill.

You have powerful and creative life-force energy. You're designed to work, and to love the work you do. Your energetic presence (aura) is open and enveloping.

Your Strategy is 'to wait to respond.' Waiting to respond doesn't mean you're doing nothing. You respond to things every minute of every day – living your life. While you're doing the work you love, or if you retreat from a dog's growl, or smile when a bird sings, or hum along with your favorite tune, or enter a conversation when asked ... you're living in response. You're designed to wait, and trust that life will come to you. All you need do is simply respond from moment-to-moment as you go through your day. Understanding the beauty of your open and enveloping aura, which is designed to draw life toward you, allows you to watch and wait – and relax into living.

Would you like to have a more satisfying life?

Your Personal Authority Your Decision Making Tool

Did you know you've always had what it takes to make the correct decisions for your life? You've always had a trustworthy, personal Authority that you can rely on to make the correct choices.

When you start practicing your Strategy and Authority, you align with your unique geometry. And, brilliantly, your genetic makeup, your reason for incarnating and your uniqueness are all expressed through you as your true self. Things just naturally fall gracefully into place.

You have Solar Plexus (Emotional) Authority

Emotional Authority is the authority of feelings. Your Solar Plexus Center operates in a wave and so for you, there is "No Truth in the Now." Clarity is something that emerges over time. You're looking for emotional clarity in the body through time, not in your mind. Clarity is a benefit of who you really are. It's the test of time and it's magical.

Play hard to get. The longer you wait the better it will be for you.

Your Emotional Authority will give you the right decision at the right time.

Your Defined and Undefined Centers

In your Chart the following Centers are defined:

- Heart
- Solar Plexus
- Root
- Sacral
- Spleen
- G

In your Chart the following Centers are undefined:

- Throat
- Ajna
- Head

Heart Center

Willpower, Ego and the Material World

The Heart Center drives willpower and ego power. Our self-esteem is how we move through the world with confidence as a valued and contributing member of society – and receive material and personal support in return. Without this belief and trust in ourselves and our own value, we lose our will to meet the challenges of life. So many heart and digestive problems are related to the ways we might compensate for poor self-esteem. Overachievement and making promises are all symptoms of trying to prove our worthiness. Understanding the mind's role in determining how we ultimately value our self, or not, can eliminate a great deal of unnecessary pain and suffering in our life.

You Have a Defined Heart Center

With your defined Heart Center, you like to be in control of your own life and your resources. That includes what you wear, when and where you work, and which demands on your time you will respond to. You recognize your own value, although at times you may inflate it. It is healthy for you to exercise your willpower, and it is important that you do what you say you are going to do, as this is how others develop a level of trust in you. You should only make promises you can and will keep, and in this way, you strengthen your natural sense of self-esteem.

Solar Plexus Center

Spirit Consciousness, Passion, Desire, Moods, Emotions

The Solar Plexus Center relates to feelings, emotions and sensitivity. Its function is to gain a sense of emotional clarity and emotional well-being. When a person's emotions run rampant over time, the physical well-being of several major organs systems is directly affected. Such conditions as water retention and weight gain are common examples of the consequences of unresolved emotional stress. This potent center provides the energy driving the cyclic nature of the human experience. Its desire frequency is continually moving us toward encounters with pleasure and its opposite, pain.

You Have a Defined Solar Plexus Center

If you have a defined Solar Plexus Center, you have Emotional Authority. It operates as awareness over time. For you there is no truth in the 'now.' Your truth reveals itself over time, and you're designed to wait through the ups and downs of your emotional wave(s) before making decisions. It isn't easy for you to be patient, as the Solar Plexus is an immature emotional center and it houses a lot of energy. Your tendency may be to jump in when you are high on your wave and jump out when you are low.

Root Center

Physical Adrenalized Pressure for Living, Stress

The Root Center provides us with pure, powerful energy and momentum to keep life moving forward. Since we can't avoid stress, it is useful to understand this adrenalized pressure on our body and not push ourselves too hard. If we turn this pressure inward, we may become depressed and suffer deeply. Maintaining a healthy balance between too much and too little stress can create a sense of vitality that spills over as joy for living.

You Have a Defined Root Center

You have a reliable, consistent and established tempo that's comfortable for you. That tempo will vary based on your Type. What you may notice as you become more aware, is that you have a certain speed and rhythm at which you get things done. If you don't get to do things at that speed, you won't feel comfortable. It doesn't necessarily have to be super-fast, just a speed that's comfortable for you.

Sacral Center

Pure Life Force Energy, Fertility, Responsibility, Availability, Sexuality

The Sacral holds within it exquisite, creative life-force energy and the power to guide and sustain life. Its receptive frequency is designed to respond to what it meets in a protective, healthy, honest and persevering manner. This complex center has the capacity to generate life-force and communicate moment-to-moment availability of its energies through responsive guttural sounds. These sacral sounds come from a trustworthy inner guidance system that existed long before humanity had the capacity for speech.

You Have a Defined Sacral Center

You have enormous power at your disposal, the power for work and creativity. It's a genuine vitality. Nothing is more important for you than to find both personal expression and deep satisfaction in the work and activities that you do. It's so important to know how to respond ... learn to correctly engage in your life and work in productive and fulfilling ways. Response needs to be honored because it's your truth. It's the only way you'll know if you have energy and perseverance for what you're being asked to do.

Splenic Center

Body Consciousness, Health, Well-Being, Intuition and Survival

The Splenic Center is our existential awareness, in the now, that keeps us moving safely forward. Deep inside, it steadily cleanses built-up toxins and the adverse effects of negative vibrations and memories from our system. It's our oldest form of awareness, and is instantaneous, instinctual alertness for anything that threatens our well-being, including negative emotions. Because it is so deeply related to our immune functions, the sole function of Splenic awareness is to keep us alive. Splenic awareness and the mind work differently. The mind shouts and Splenic awareness whispers.

You Have a Defined Splenic Center

Your Splenic Center is responsible for your surviving and thriving with a sense of well-being in the world. It manages your instinct, intuition and taste which are processes for discerning what is or isn't healthy for your survival. Its non-verbal recognition operates in the present moment, in the 'now.' This vital, spontaneous information is your intuition, instinct or a hunch that allows you to make trustworthy spontaneous judgments and decisions. Moment-to-moment awareness means that the Spleen never repeats itself.

G Center

Love, Identity and Direction

The G Center is the most extraordinary center in the BodyGraph. It draws toward us what is specifically ours (by definition) to experience over the course of our lifetime. We are designed to live that love that is attracted to us, beginning with loving ourselves. It is like having our own inner GPS, and this pull allows our unique role in life to naturally play out. It attracts all the people, places, and events that we are here to encounter to us, determining the way life itself is attracted to and authentically lived through us.

You Have a Defined G Center

Through your defined G Center, you have a fixed and reliable self-identity, a sense of being loved and loveable. If you are secure in your love for yourself, you can love others without becoming dependent on them. You have a sense of your own correct direction or mission in life, and naturally point out new directions – and possibly new loves – for others. You have a deep sense of connectedness to your center, and the capacity to comfort people who are concerned about the direction humanity is heading in, by helping them understand the nature of our evolution as a species.

Throat Center

Communication and Manifestation

All roads lead to the Throat. As the central and most complex of the nine centers, all energy flowing through the BodyGraph is under pressure to get to the Throat. Its primary function is expressing who we are, what we are thinking, feeling, creating or learning, what we know or want to contribute, and what we have seen or heard and can say to empower others. With so much pressure on the Throat Center to speak and to do, many people are prone to act or to say things either too soon or too late.

You Have an Undefined Throat Center

When you have an undefined Throat Center there can be amplified pressure to talk, to act, to make an impression, to interrupt or to be the life of the party. Your open Throat naturally attracts attention, however, and if you wait, you will receive the proper attention and invitations to speak, at the most opportune time. You are designed to speak spontaneously and to enjoy the different voices or forms of expression that come through you. Using your Strategy and Authority, you're here to become wise about getting the correct attention and can speak for anyone.

Ajna Center

Mental Awareness, the Mind

The Head and Ajna Centers function together as the mind. The Ajna Center is a processing hub, transforming the pressure of inspiration from the Head Center, into useful information for review, research, and communication. Our perceptions are derived from two major processes: one is visual and one is acoustic. The visual is concerned with what has been and what might be. The acoustic is associated with pure inspiration and the pressure to know now. The frequency of our mental process operates over all time.

You Have an Undefined Ajna Center

With your open Ajna you have a flexible way of processing and conceptualizing ideas and inspiration. Once your mind is set free from conditioning, it is open to a full range of intellectual stimulation and creativity. Once you realize and have accepted that your mind operates in an inconsistent way, and that you can never really be certain about anything, your mind becomes a playground. It reverts to its correct role as a classroom, a delightful source of entertainment, and a treasure trove of wisdom for others. Using your Strategy and Authority, you're here to have the wisdom to know which mental concepts are actually of value.

Head Center

Mental Pressure and Inspiration

The Head Center operates as a pressure to comprehend, to think and make sense of things in the world. Its pressure moves our thoughts toward conceptualization in the Ajna Center by pushing our questions toward formulas and opinions, clarification and insight, and our confusion toward realization and ideas. Human Design refers to this pressure as inspiration - the ways we have of taking in information from the cosmic field of consciousness. Quite simply, this is the pressure to ask questions, and expect answers, that we experience throughout our day.

You Have an Undefined Head Center

Your undefined Head Center has no consistent way of deliberating mental information. Moment-to-moment inspiration can become an amplified pressure to think about things that don't matter, and you can get lost in your own mental monologue with meaningless thoughts and questions. The real potential of the undefined Head Center is to wonder and explore the mystery of life, human consciousness, and the intellectual possibilities of an infinite range of subjects. Using your Strategy and Authority, you're here to have the wisdom to know which inspiration is actually of value.

Your Profile

The Costume You Wear In Life

Your Profile is an integral part of your differentiation as a unique individual. Taken from both your conscious and unconscious definition, it influences everything else you are. You may be an emotional Generator, for instance, sitting with three other emotional Generators, but if you have different Profiles you are very different people. Together with our Incarnation Cross, Profile allows us to live our purpose as our own authentic character on the stage of our life.

2-4

The Hermit Opportunist

You are naturally shy and unaware of your gifts – others see things in you that you can't see in yourself. And, you are also naturally friendly. You are most comfortable with your own network and when the right person draws you out to share your talents it can lead to profound transformation.

Summary and Resources

We hope you've enjoyed this brief overview of your Human Design. The Human Design System offers information and tools for navigating your life during these changing and challenging times.

Ra Uru Hu is the founder and Messenger of the Human Design System. He was a visionary and pioneer. For 25 years he dedicated himself to impacting the world with The Human Design System. He considered himself the messenger of The Human Design System, now his legacy, and dedicated his life since the encounter to disseminating the Science of Differentiation around the world. He settled, lived and worked in Ibiza where he enjoyed teaching, playing music, gardening and spending time with his wife, three children and his grandson. Ra passed away in his home on March 12, 2011.

“Wisdom hides in your openness. It hides behind the distortion of conditioning, but it's there ... Wisdom arises out of the awareness of what you are, as opposed to what you are not. ~ Love yourself, Ra Uru Hu

The Human Design Community is truly global. Ra established a network of Organizations with the intention that they would continue his work, and carry the true message of Human Design into the future and the world.
